Thermo Electric Company, Inc.
PRESS RELEASE
RELOCATION of TENJ
November, 2008
www.thermo-electric-direct.com

Thermo Electric (TE) is pleased to announce that having resided for 57 years at its Saddle Brook, New Jersey facility the company has moved its NJ operations to a new facility in Totowa, New Jersey. The relocation to Totowa represents a further implementation of Thermo Electric's Corporate Strategic Plan to update and modernize its manufacturing plants throughout the TE global Network. The new facility is a modern physical plant located in one of the largest industrial parks in the region. It is ideally suited to service the growing number of customers in the area as well as those customers it presently services in concert with the other TE facilities located throughout the United States and the world.
